IMPORTANT: Please report to the Download tent even if you do not finish your course.

Map and Terrain: Wimpole Hall Park is naturalistic parkland with contours (!), chalk depressions, small woodland features and a former quarry. Map is 1:10,000 scale with 5m contours, waterproof with preprinted courses, A4 sized. Control descriptions on maps. Loose control descriptions. Some seasonal paths are marked.

Courses:

	Length	Climb
White	1.6k	25m
Yellow	2.1k	25m
Orange	3.2k	55m
Light Green	4.1k	45m
Short Green	3.5k	60m
Green	4.6k	70m
Blue	7.1k	100m

Safety: There are uncrossable fences, cattle grids and ditches to control livestock and marked crossings must be used. Courses may run through fields containing livestock and care should be exercised near livestock. There is deep water associated with a landscaped open lake area. The lake edges are clearly defined. Long trousers are advisable due to thistles and nettles. Take care for the usual hazards such as tripping, rabbit holes and eye-level branches. Please show consideration to other park users.

Dogs are welcome but must be kept under control at all times. There are cattle and sheep on the parkland. Dogs must be on leads in the parking area and in the vicinity of livestock.

Competitors take part at their own risk and are responsible for their own safety.

Results: The results from this event will be published online as soon as possible, see www.waoc.org.uk.

A First aid box will be located in the download tent. If the weather is bad, please carry a cagoule.
